Your financial aid application was selected for verification which requires you to provide documentation to demonstrate that you have completed/graduated high school prior to the start of the 2024-2025 academic year.

Any one of the following documents can be submitted to demonstrate high school completion.

Check the appropriate documentation being provided:

- A copy of a high school diploma.
- A copy of a final, official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A copy of a General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript that indicates the student passed the exam:
- Certification of a passing score on a test that the student's state authorizes and recognizes as the equivalent of a high school diploma. This includes tests similar to the GED, such as the High School Equivalency Test or the Test Assessing Secondary Completion. Test transcripts are acceptable documentation if they indicate that the final score is a passing score or that the student's state considers the test results to meet its high school equivalency requirements.
- A copy of the "secondary school leaving certificate" or similar document from the proper government agency for students who completed secondary school in a foreign country. If your college doesn't have the expertise to evaluate foreign secondary school credentials or chooses not to do so, there are evaluation services available.
- An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree at any participating school.
- A copy of a secondary school completion credential for home-school (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent) if state law requires home-schooled students to obtain that credential.
- A transcript or the equivalent, signed by the parent or guardian of a home-schooled student, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a home-school setting.
- A completed Ability-to-Benefit (ATB) Certification Sheet.

Acceptable documentation of high school completion must be attached to this form.
